

THE NEWS LETTER

Who's Ready for An Amazing 2017?

Woodbury Lutheran Youth is excited to be participating in a few really great events over the next few months and we want to make sure you have them on your calendars!!! You may wonder why we have youth events, retreats, and serving experiences. All of these are opportunities for our students and leaders to develop strong relationships, to step outside of their normal life rhythms and have some quality Jesus time.

We think of these experiences as the extra boost that helps our young people's faith mature and grow more rooted during such transitional times. If your young person is feeling disconnected or seems like they need a little extra boost, sign up! If they're nervous to go alone, come with them! If they're willing, have them bring a friend to help ease them into these awesome mountain top experiences! You can always find more information at wlyouth.org and by following wlyouth on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.

WOODBURY LUTHERAN

Jubilee!!!

2017 is going to be a year of Jubilee at Woodbury Lutheran Church! What is jubilee you ask; it is a year of celebration. If you were tracking with us over the summer as we walked through the book of Leviticus, then you no doubt remember the command of God given to Israel that every 50th year should be a year of Jubilee; a year when debts would be forgiven, aliens and foreigners would be welcomed and an overall sense of celebration would encompass the nation.

2017 marks the 50th birthday of Woodbury Lutheran Church as well as the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. Both events coincide in late October, but throughout the year we will be celebrating what God has done in the past with an eye on what He will do for the next 50 years at WLC! Here are some highlights:

1. In January we will be spending four weeks talking about Generosity and the freedom and joy that comes from having a clear financial picture in our lives that includes being generous.
2. As a thank you to our community and to reflect the generosity shown to us in Jesus we will be giving away our Easter offering this year to one or several non-profits - this will be over and above the 10 percent already set aside in our missions. This is a step of faith as we trust that the Lord will provide 52 weeks of offerings in 51 weeks in 2017 - I, for one, am excited about this opportunity to be generous!
3. In late September we will be putting together a good old Oktoberfest on our St. Croix Campus.
4. During the month of October we will be looking back on the many ways that God has been at work in our church over the last 50 years, as well as looking forward to what He will do over the next 50 years.
5. On the weekend of October 19-21 we will be hosting a Feed My Starving Children Mobile Pack on our Valley Creek Campus.
6. The last weekend of October we will officially celebrate our 50th anniversary as a church and the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

Join me in truly making this a year of Jubilee!

Peace - Pastor Tom

“...And as we trust Him and walk on His path, the way will shine brighter and brighter until the full light of day.”

In Anticipation of the Liberty Ridge Campus

January is finally here! I can't help but look forward to a fresh start and a feeling of anticipation for the future. And a big part of our future at Woodbury Lutheran Church is giving birth to a third campus, Liberty Ridge!

This will be my second time witnessing the launch of a church in a school building. My memories of the first church launch are those of excitement, joy and a feeling of complete unity with the others who were called to “go.” I remember the very first Sunday we launched, the atmosphere felt like it was crackling...I've never witnessed such an outpouring of praise and worship in a congregation as when the band started to play that morning. We were praising God for his power, His love and His faithfulness in that new opportunity. What an emotional day it was. I am happy to say that the church is still going strong and they built their own beautiful facility a few years ago.

Looking back, things weren't always easy, but God was always faithful. Was it convenient to set up a complete stage, sound system and hundreds of chairs every Sunday (and tear it all back down again)? No, but everyone chipped in, even the smallest of children and we laughed and had fun anyway. It was a bit like a toddler learning to walk: there were stumbles from time to time, but God was always there to pick us up, dust us off and send us on our way.

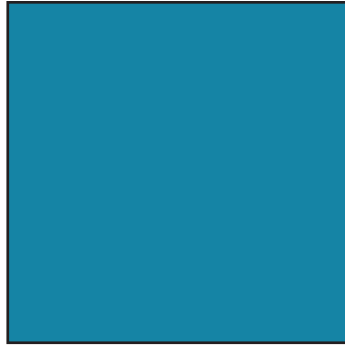

When God calls us, it doesn't always mean it's going to be easy or convenient. However, Proverbs 4:18 says, “The path of the righteous is like the first gleam of dawn, shining ever brighter till the full light of day.” We may not know where Liberty Ridge will be in a year, 5 years or 10 years. But praise God, we don't have to worry about it because God is just calling us to take the first step of faith...He'll take care of the rest! And as we trust Him and walk on His path, the way will shine brighter and brighter until the full light of day.

Maybe you feel God nudging you to go with Liberty Ridge? Talk to Him about it and ask Him to show you His shining path for your life. We'd love to have you as part of the launch community...it's going to be fun!

And for those who are already committed to Liberty Ridge I would say this: start preparing your hearts now. Let's show up every Sunday with anticipation and joy, ready to worship the Everlasting God! Let us never stop crying: “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come.” (Revelation 4:8)

Praying God's blessings over you today,
~Kandi Chavie

Working on Hearts

“He humbled you, causing you to hunger and then feeding you with manna, which neither you nor your ancestors had known, to teach you that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the Lord.” - Deuteronomy 8:3

When summer floods left 100,000 homes in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, devastated, the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod Disaster Response established Camp Restore Baton Rouge at Trinity First Lutheran in Baton Rouge to provide flood cleanup and rebuilding volunteers. The camp consists of dorms that hold 50 bunks, kitchen facilities, a dining room and a shower trailer to provide for the needs of the volunteers and is supported by volunteer and church donations.

Woodbury Lutheran sent a “dream team” (team leader Jeff Linert’s description) of eight workers to Camp Restore Baton Rouge in October. For 4 days, team members Mike Brocker, Troy Dalldorf, Cheri and Dave Frost, Mike Hamann, Linert, Mike Rygh, and Mike Sabbann worked in several homes, removing wet sheetrock and flooring in two homes, and replacing sheetrock in another.

We were blessed by the work the team was called to do in Louisiana and the lives that were changed. They did not work just on buildings, but on hearts. They met Kentra, a recent cancer survivor, who received not just help on her home, but ministered to her with scripture and prayers for healing. They worked during the day with Karen, another volunteer and her sons, and, after listening to the team talk, Karen asked to join their evening devotions. She shared that she was touched with a hunger for more of the Word in her own life. They witnessed to homeowner Tan and his mother, both Catholics from Vietnam, who expressed an interest in a closer relationship with Jesus and helping Camp Restore.

Camp Restore is bare bones and beautiful because the proprietors trust the Spirit for everything needed. The attitude is kind and friendly, but serious about the Lord’s business of helping in Jesus’s name. The place is clean and organized, but really only God knows who you will be helping on any given day. Phone calls are made at the beginning of everyday to confirm work needs to be done and there will be someone there to let the crew in. Then the work is matched to the team so the job can be done safely and well. Donated tools are rounded up and you are off to meet folks struggling to get back to normal.

The team was floored by the extent of the damage. Whole neighborhoods looked normal unless you looked closely through the windows. The walls were stripped down to the studs. All the drywall, cabinets, and flooring were in a pile by the curb outside the house. The principle of the Trinity first school told me about 40% of their families were forced to leave their homes while the place gets cleaned up, ripped apart and put back together. Where are all the people going? Kentra is staying with mom. Bonnie in her boyfriend’s fishing trailer. Tan stayed with friends. Tan’s brother moved his family into his place of business (Tan’s brother had a team going to his house the day we left). It is a credit to Baton Rouge that these displaced people have a place to stay.

The appreciation of our efforts in Jesus’s name is hard to forget. We all stood around Kentra who is a working single mom with a wrecked house and prayed. She prayed thanking God for the team all the way from Minnesota. We shared that God sent us to her because He loves her. Praise God. She texted us a month later when she finally moved back in. Tan worked hard with his friends to clean out his house, but he didn’t know how to drywall. Mike Rygh actually knew how. He taught us and we taught Tan. By the end, he knew how it do it. At the end of every day we prayed with Tan. He cried every time. He and his family is not going to forget the team that came from Minnesota to drywall his home and pray with him. We are grateful we were able to do it.

The work continues at Camp Restore. Woodbury Lutheran members, friends and family interested in participating on another team (we need a team leader and some potential dates to get started) may contact Vicki Strong, 651-730-5049 or vickistrong@comcast.net.

Cost of the trip is shared gas (or airfare if you would wish to fly into New Orleans and lease a car), meals on the road and a suggested donation of $40/day to Camp Restore to cover sleeping accommodations (bunk house with hot showers) and 3 meals/day.

Len the LINC-er

At first glance, Len Score might not appear to be a missionary. You would normally find him hiking or on a bike trail outdoors - he grew up on a farm in North Dakota. Yet today, Len is working to share God's love and make disciples among Somali immigrants in the Twin Cities.

In 2008, Len and his wife Carol moved to Maplewood, Minnesota and became members at Woodbury Lutheran Church. This past year, with his pastor's encouragement, Len joined LINC's Harvest Incubator for Mission (HIM). HIM helps people find their place in mission and ministry. Since joining HIM, Len now uses some of his retirement time to volunteer as an English tutor with Arrive Ministry's Somali Adult Literacy Training (SALT).

I have the pleasure of meeting with Len in the context of his mission field - at a local Somali deli - for one-on-one coaching. We pray and strategize about Len's outreach efforts.

Recently, Len shared especially good news:

"A few of us English tutors from SALT were here [at the Somali deli] enjoying Sambusas and tea when a local Muslim Imam introduced himself. We were invited to visit his mosque and discuss our religions. It was an interesting time and exchange of faith perspectives. During the conversation, we also connected with a Somali leader who has a passion for promoting unity and peace in the neighborhood, particularly at a local elementary school. He invited us to help start a citizenship class in the community room of the school for parents and to assist in other after-school activities."

"...Len is working to share God's love and make disciples among Somali immigrants in the Twin Cities."

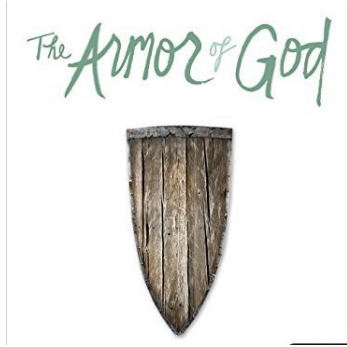

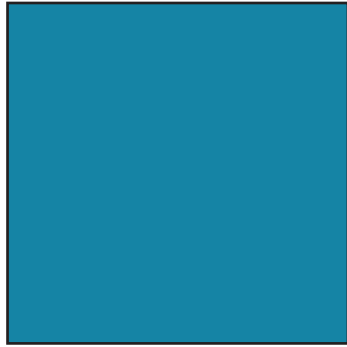

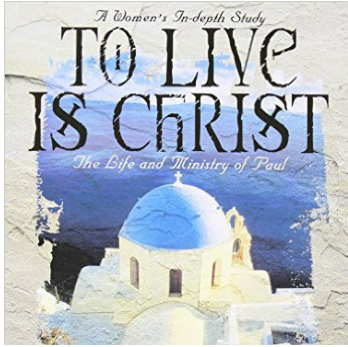

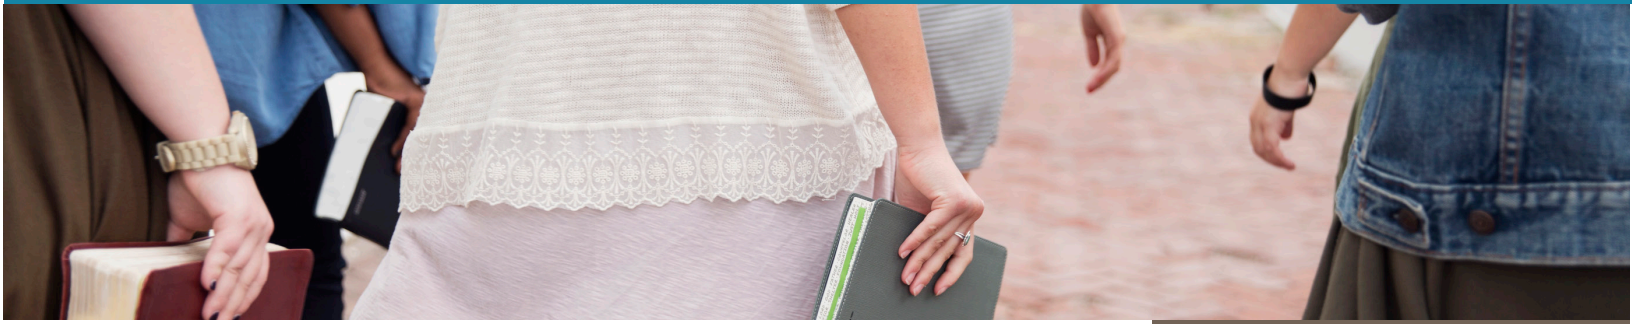

Len has now been helping the citizenship class for a couple of weeks, and is excited about the future, "I thank the Lord for LINC and this opportunity to work within the Somali community. I look forward to serving alongside our Somali neighbors, building relationships with people of peace, and continuing the discipleship path."

It's a joy to coach Len in God's mission. He is a humble man but I learn as much from his life experience as he learns from my coaching. Please join me in praying for Len, our Somali neighbors, and the whole of LINC Twin Cities. I am so thankful for your partnership and support. As you pray about our ministries I ask that you also consider a generous year-end gift, which will help develop leaders like Len. Please visit our secure donation site or mail your gift to LINC Twin Cities, 670 Wheelock Pkwy W, Saint Paul, MN.

Grace and Peace,
Kurtis Leon-Smith
Director of Community Outreach, LINC Twin Cities

"I thank the Lord for LINC and this opportunity to work within the Somali community. I look forward to serving alongside our Somali neighbors, building relationships with people of peace, and continuing the discipleship path."

For moms with young children: All Things New by Kelly Minter - The Letter of 2 Corinthians - exploring the anchoring truths of bearing treasures in jars of clay, meeting Christ through a pressing thorn, opening wide your heart in the midst of hurtful relationships, and what it means to embrace the lost and lonely as ministers of the new covenant. Each of us has a message to proclaim and live by: Because of Jesus the old has gone, the new has come. Meets in the Lounge.

To Live is Christ, The Life and Ministry of Paul by Beth Moore—Bible study on the life and ministry of Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles. Paul served faithfully, loved heartily, and demonstrated what it means to die daily, crucified with Jesus Christ. Join Beth Moore in a journey to discover a greater appreciation for his unflagging faith and undying devotion to servant-hood. Meets in the Isaiah Room.

Christian, It's Not What You Think by Andy Stanley—What does it mean to be Christian? Curiously, the term is never used in Scripture. Instead, Christian was a label used by outsiders to define Jesus' followers. Jesus referenced 'disciple' as the key word he used to describe his supporters along with the fact that they would be known for their love - a novel concept for their time - and ours today. Through eight engaging and enlightening small group bible study sessions, Andy Stanley unpacks these qualities Jesus prescribes for his followers that made them unique. Meets in the Timothy Room.

The Armor of God by

Priscilla Shirer - All day, every day, an invisible war rages around you - unseen, unheard, yet felt throughout every aspect of your life. An enemy seeks to wreak havoc on everything that matters to you: your heart, mind, marriage, children, relationships, resilience, dreams, your destiny. But his battle plan depends on catching you unaware and unarmed. If you're tired of being pushed around and caught with your guard down, The Armor of God study is for you. The Enemy always fails miserably when he meets a woman dressed for the occasion. The Armor of God, more than merely a biblical description of the believer's inventory, is an action plan for putting it on and developing a personalized strategy to secure victory. Meets in the Fireside Room.

worship from the INSIDE OUT

Worship is a direct reflection of our hearts. It comes from the inside out.

Worship can look like singing a hand-clapping worship song, or a hymn steeped in theology. It can look like tithing, even when you aren't sure you'll have enough money for next month's rent, or it can look like carving out precious time to serve at a soup kitchen. God is constantly stirring our hearts to act according to His will and this turns into the most beautiful worship.

MY HUSBAND AND I CHOSE MICAH 6:8 AS A LIFE VERSE FOR OUR FIRST CHILD ...

But what does it mean to worship in the environment of responsibility?

My husband and I chose Micah 6:8 as a life verse for our first child, a son whom we named Eli. We have been praying this verse over him for nine years. Some of my favorite home videos are of Eli reciting his life verse from memory at two years old with his toddler accent.

Now that Eli is well out of that toddler stage, we are getting to see how God has used this verse to shape his personality, especially when it comes to the responsibility he feels toward people in need.

Not long ago, we were driving as a family and we saw a homeless man at an intersection. In an effort to prompt our kids toward action, I said, "Look, I see a homeless person! I wish we could do something to help (hint hint)." Our three younger children were quick to respond with ideas about giving the man money or the gift cards we keep in our glove box specifically for that purpose. We gave him some kind words and a gift card, then the light turned green, and we were on our way.

Eli had been silent during the whole exchange; finally he piped up and said he hoped the homeless person would spend his money wisely. We all agreed, then talked about God's command to give to the poor regardless of how they might spend the money. But I could tell there was still something on Eli's mind. And his next statement blew me away!

He said, "I hope that everyone who comes in contact with that man is kind to him. If he was someone we loved, maybe a part of our family, I would like to know that people were treating him nicely. Even if he doesn't spend that money wisely, I hope he felt loved by us."

Do you ever look at your spouse to verify if you heard the same thing? This was one of those moments! Honestly though, I'm not sure why we were so surprised. We have been praying for Eli to be shown the goodness of God, then take responsibility with what God has entrusted to him, by acting justly, loving mercy, and staying humble for nine years!

Was Eli's heart toward an unknown but needy man along the roadside an act of worship?

I think it might have been some of the purest worship I have ever witnessed.

This month, as an act of worship, pray this over your children and wait expectantly for what God has planned for their lives!

He has shown you, (child's name), what is good.

And what does the Lord require of you?

To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

(From Micah 6:8)
